About Sarbjit Singh

Sarbjit Singh is an Indian Spiritual Educator, Founder & President of Shri Bajrang Bala Ji Trust, International Cultural Delegate, Author, and Motivational Speaker whose work integrates spirituality, education, cultural heritage, and community leadership.

He holds postgraduate degrees in Sociology (2001) and Music (2003) from Kurukshetra University and is UGC NET qualified in both disciplines. Between 2001 and 2012, he served as an educator and academic mentor, promoting value-based education and student development.

In 2008–2009, he founded OCEAN – An Excellent Group of Art to promote Indian performing arts and international cultural exchange. In 2010, he led an Indian cultural delegation of approximately 15–16 artists to Belarus for an international festival involving participants from nearly 30 countries. His international engagements later extended to Sweden, Turkey, Iran, Russia, the United Arab Emirates, and Oman, strengthening his experience in intercultural dialogue and cultural collaboration.

In 2025, he established Shri Bajrang Bala Ji Trust to advance spiritual education, ethical leadership, community service, and digital outreach. Through regular online satsang, educational initiatives, and humanitarian activities, the Trust seeks to promote responsible citizenship, inner transformation, and meaningful social contribution.

Sarbjit Singh actively welcomes collaboration with universities, cultural institutions, international organisations, embassies, and community partners committed to education, intercultural understanding, and sustainable human development.
